The Editors Weekend

This weekend you have an extra day so why not make the 90 mile trip to Stratford to see the Shakespearian Festival. By car the trip takes about 2 hours. If you leave early on Saturday you will be in time for the 2:00 p.m. showing of "Tartuffe" starring William Hutt in a performance that has been unanimously praised.

On Saturday Evening at 8:30 you may see the production of "Hadrian VII" - a play which was a smash hit in London & New York. Ticket prices vary between $6.50 and $2.50 but you must make reservations to avoid disappointment. To order tickets call 364-8355.

On the way to or from Stratford you might stop at the "Aberfoyle Mill" a restaurant situated in a restored mill, just a mile north of highway 401 on Highway 6.

DON'T FORGET MRS. DEANE - IN THE INFORMATION CENTRE
